

Network Automation

Software Version: 10.50

Network Automation (NA) provides an enterprise-class solution that tracks and regulates configuration and software changes across routers, switches, firewalls, load balancers, and wireless access points. To know more, visit Micro Focus Software Information Portal.

Release notes

Read about new features, changed features, and more.

Read more

Get started

New user? Get started with some basic concepts, architecture, and use cases.

Read more

Install

Find instructions to install, set up, and configure NA on Linux.

Read more

Upgrade

Upgrade to the latest version of NA using instructions from here.

Read more

Integrate

Understand supported integrations and how to configure them.

Read more

Administer

NA Administrator? Find tasks and instructions to help you with your admin operations.

Read more

Use

Find documentation to help you with your daily operations on NA.

Read more

Troubleshoot

Contains list of common problems, recommended solutions and workarounds.

Read more

Develop

Learn how you can extend and maximize NA's capabilities and resources.

Read more